

LEADING SCHOOL CHANGE

Enabling engaged teaching and learning while navigating complex changes creates a need for intentional systems within district and school teams. This one-day workshop equips leaders with a proven instructional leadership model, practical change management tools, and actionable strategies to transform schools, ensuring clear next steps toward authentic student experiences. District and/or school leaders leave with clear tools around vision, assessment, change management, and shared leadership, and a set of next steps to help start the journey to transform their school.
